

Community Health Worker Training in Cardiovascular Disease/Diabetes Management

Topics: Motivational Interviewing, Social Determinants of Health, Stroke, Heart Disease, Heart Attack, Heart Failure, Atrial Fibrillation, High Blood Pressure, High Cholesterol, Pre-Diabetes, Diabetes, Healthy Eating and Weight Control, Lifestyle Interventions

On-Line Zoom Platform

October 1, 2020 – December 17, 2020

Apply by: September 25, 2020

To request an application, please email David Zuleta at dzuleta@ric.edu

This training is for certified Community Health Workers only

Synchronous Weekly Training Dates* (course is 35 hours, including weekly asynchronous assignments)

*October 1, Th 11am – 1pm	October 23, Fr 11am – 1pm	November 20, Fr 11 am – 1pm
October 2, Fr 11am – 1pm	October 30, Fr 11am – 1pm	December 4, Fr 11 am – 1pm
October 9, Fr 11am – 1pm	November 6, Fr 11am – 1pm	*December 10, Th 11am – 1pm
October 16, Fr 11am – 1pm	November 13, Fr 11am – 1pm	*December 17, Th 11am – 2pm

This satisfies the training requirement for CHW certification in CVD/DM. For more, see RICB website.

This training is FREE

Presented by the Rhode Island College // Funded by the Rhode Island Department of Health

