VACCINE CONFIDENCE BOOST

Rhode Island-based Community Health Workers (CHWs) and other healthcare workers are invited to attend this FREE online training session.

Wednesday, October 19, 2022 - 1 p.m. to 2:30 p.m.

This workshop is ideal for:

- Community Health Workers (CHWs);
- Community outreach specialists;
- Vaccine registration coordinators;
- Vaccine clinic staff and volunteers;
- Peer navigators; and
- Anyone who provides COVID-19 vaccine education or outreach.

This interactive workshop provides an opportunity for participants to practice using effective communication techniques to have informed conversations about the COVID-19 vaccine and other vaccines.

Participants will learn to:

1. Describe why people may have low confidence in the COVID-19 vaccine and other vaccines;
2. Provide fact-based responses to common misconceptions about vaccines; and
3. Identify useful strategies in effectively communicating with others about COVID-19 and other vaccines.
